Merry Christmas from our family to yours

Christmas is just around the corner. It seems like only a few weeks ago we were putting away the Christmas tree and the decorations, but it is now time to bring them out once again.

Even though Christmas can be stressful at times, there is much joy when families come together around the tree or family dinner table and share stories and memories of the past.

My husband and I enjoy hanging the ornaments on the tree and with so many of them, we can share a story with each ornament. It may be an ornament we purchased on a special vacation or one a family member gave us. I am sure many of you can say the same thing about your ornaments and the stories associated with each.

Here at Laura's Kitchen, we hope 2009 has been a good year for you. We know many people are facing difficult times, but if we have our health, family and friends, we are very blessed.

If you are thinking of sending candy to your loved ones this year, we want you to know we will only be making divinity candy during the holiday season this year. From our experience, we can find excellent fudge in practically every candy shop you visit, but the delicious homemade divinity is a rare treat. Our divinity is only made after it is ordered and usually shipped within 48 hours. It is made with fresh egg whites, light corn syrup and lots of love. We welcome your orders this holiday season and encourage you to order early. You can designate when you want the candy to be shipped and if sent as a gift, we will enclose a card indicating it is from you.

Merry Christmas!

Laura
